INTRODUCTION

- Hook interesting first sentence
- Background information give context to your argument/subject; familiarize the reader with the content
- Definitions define any terms that the reader might find usual/unfamiliar
- Thesis a clear, concise statement of your main argument; the overall idea you'll be arguing. Your thesis will also serve as a roadmap for the rest of your essay, giving the reader a general idea of the path your argument will follow.

EACH BODY PARAGRAPH

- Only one point to support your thesis per paragraph
- Topic sentence
  - reflects the main idea of the paragraph
  - links back to support the thesis
- Evidence information from a reliable outside source (not your own opinion) that supports the main idea of the paragraph
- Analysis show how your evidence supports your argument; build your argument

CONCLUSION

- Tie up the essay briefly sum up the main point
- Establish significance (see "So What?" handout)
- Bonus: give the reader food for thought
